Mr. Washington became the first President of the United States on Thursday, April 30, 1789. Mr. Washington said the Oath of Office. He said:

"I, George Washington, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and I will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States."

Can you think of another word for 'oath'? Here is a hint to get you started:

6

As President, what should Mr. Washington do first? That is right! Before President Washington did anything at all, he chose to pray to God. He wanted to give thanks to God. He wanted to ask for God's help.

7

Cut along all dotted lines. Cut off these instructions. You do not need them.

225 years ago, George Washington asked God to keep and protect America. During this National Week of Prayer 2014, What would you ask God to do for America?

Write your prayer on the next page.
