

George Washington was at home at Mount Vernon on _____	George Washington left for New York City on _____	George Washington arrived in New York City on _____
George Washington traveled through six states on his way to New York City. He passed through Alexandria, _____ (state)	George Washington traveled through six states on his way to New York City. He passed through Baltimore, _____ (state)	George Washington traveled through six states on his way to New York City. He passed through Wilmington, _____ (state)
George Washington traveled through six states on his way to New York City. He passed through Philadelphia, _____ (state)	George Washington traveled through six states on his way to New York City. He passed through Trenton, _____ (state)	George Washington traveled through six states on his way to New York City. New York City is in _____ (state)

Cut questions out and place in a stack from which students can draw as they play What Happened Next?

Optional: Use the extra cards to create bonus cards/wild cards.

Inauguration Day: Thursday , _____ . The church bells rang a Call of Worship at _____ .	Inauguration Day: Thursday, _____ . Mr. Washington walks to Federal Hall to take the Oath of Office at _____ .	After taking the Oath of Office, President Washington gave an Inaugural Speech in the same building. That building is called: _____
After giving an Inaugural Speech, President Washington led Congress to a church to pray and dedicate America to God. To what church did they walk? _____	What was the last thing President Washington did at the Inauguration and the first thing he did as President of the United States? -----

Answers:

George Washington was at home at Mt. Vernon on April 6, 1789.

George Washington left for New York City on April 16, 1789.

George Washington arrived in New York City on April 23, 1789.

Alexandria, Virginia

Baltimore, Maryland

Wilmington, Delaware

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Trenton, New Jersey

New York City, New York

Inauguration Day: Thursday, April 30, 1789, 9:00

Inauguration Day: Thursday, April 30, 1789 12:00

Washington took the Oath of Office in Federal Hall.

President Washington led Congress to St. Paul's Church

Last thing President Washington did at Inauguration/First thing as President: Prayed/dedicated America to God