

Across

- 4 lack of ability or power (10)
- 6 important in the highest degree, necessary (9)
- 7 to call or send for in order to meet (7)
- 8 result or effect (12)
- 10 having great warmth or feeling (7)
- 15 to make or be unwilling (14)
- 17 displaying great loyalty to a person or thing, marked by a false show of goodness (5)

- 18 a discussion and consideration of the reasons for and against something (13)
- 20 determined by Providence, fortunate, timely (12)
- 21 a special taste or liking (10)
- 22 to be in the place of authority (8)
- 23 having much importance, power to influence or persuade (7)

Down

- 1 to admit the truth or existence of, to recognize the rights of authority (11)
- 2 to make or declare sacred, to devote to a purpose (11)
- 3 to bring or come into activity, being or operation (8)
- 5 to assign as a share or portion (8)
- 9 to ask earnestly and humbly (13)
- 11 free from disturbance or turmoil (8)
- 12 honor, respect (6)

- 13 an expression of good wishes, blessing at the end of a religious service (11)
- 14 a thought or attitude influenced by feeling (10)
- 16 promising success, prosperous, successful (12)
- 17 to make less harsh, to find excuses for (9)
- 19 to change often between one point, position or opinion, to have a strong influence upon (6)

American Freedom Museum: Inaugural Speech Crossword 2

6th -
12th

